Course Description:

Intermediate Korean 201 aims at developing students' basic communicative skills for everyday tasks and situations. At the end of the course, students will be able to apply the previously learned grammatical structures and vocabulary items creatively to their own speaking and writing. The course also introduces students to Chinese characters 한자 at an elementary level.

Learning Goals:

The course also satisfies the following Asian Languages and Cultures Departmental Learning Goals for Korean majors and minors:

- Majors will be able to demonstrate substantial knowledge of Korean language, literature, and culture and pursue advanced study and/or employment in a capacity requiring such linguistic skill and cultural knowledge.
- Minors will be able to communicate effectively (listening, speaking, and writing) in Korean and to read vernacular materials appropriate to the student's area of specialization; achieve advanced-low or advanced speaking, reading, and writing competency (based on the guidelines of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages); demonstrate practical skills in using Korean for translation, interpretation, etc.; use effectively tools (reference works, etc.) and technology appropriate to learning Korean; and analyze and interpret texts and relate relevant issues to other areas in the humanities.

Course Policy (grading policy) and Requirements:

(1) Attendance and Class Participation:

- You are expected to attend every class and arrive on time. Poor attendance, frequent lateness and early departure will affect your grade. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class Being tardy to class or leaving class early three times will count as an absence. Missing a class for more than 40 minutes will be also considered one absence. If your absences exceed 2 classes (3 and more absences), you will not receive an A regardless of your semester scores. If your absences exceed 6 classes (7 and more absences), you may fail the course.
- Low attendance and use of digital devices (Laptops, MP3 players and cellular phones) will also cause deduction in participation scores without warning. Digital devices must be turned off and put away during class.
- You may not leave the classroom during class without the instructor's permission.
- It is YOUR responsibility to keep up with what you have missed for absences.

(2) Workbook Homework:

- You should have done WB homework before class to participate fully in the classroom activities.
- Each WB homework should be re-submitted after correcting the errors marked by the instructor during the first submission. This re-do submission is due by the day indicated on the schedule.
- Those submitted later but before the next class starts will earn 80% of the credit. Those submitted on the following class will earn 70% of the credit. Those submitted after the following class but before re-do submission due date will earn 50% of the credit. Any assignments submitted after that will not be accepted. (If you cannot submit your homework because of your absence, you may submit it at the beginning of the next class with full credit.)

(3) Quizzes:

- There will be one vocabulary quiz and one lesson quiz for each lesson. Two 한자 quizzes will be given throughout the semester.
- There will be NO make-up for a missed quiz. Missing a quiz is the equivalent of a zero (0). If you plan to miss the class on the day of quizzes, you may take the quiz in advance with instructor's permission. For missed midterms, you will be allowed for a make-up with only 80% of what you make.
- 한자 Quiz: 한자 will be covered once a week. Only reading and meaning of each 한자 will be tested.

(4) Oral Exam:

- There will be one in-class presentation (further instruction and topics will be given in class) as a midterm oral exam and one one-on-one interview (about 7 minutes long) as a final oral exam.
- For the in-class presentation, students are required to submit a draft(s) of their scripts and presentation slides (see the schedule for the submission schedule).
